

Our cams Space toys!

Year 5 worked hard to investigate the different movements cams make. They then identified which cam they would need to make the movement they wanted for their design. The children used saws to get their dowels to the right length.

Well done for making such colourful cams toys!

