

Postcard from my teacher

Dear Silver Birch,
thank you for the postcards and an amazing story written by a budding author in year 4 who took us to a place with lollipop tree's and chocolate grass. I would love to go there! What a hectic 2 weeks we have had! Otis decided to take a leap which was a bit too adventurous for a little bunny, resulting in him dislocating his elbow. After an X-ray at the vets he had to go to the animal hospital in London to have it put back in place and he returned later that day with a bandage, medicine (which he loves) and a get-well card. Has he learnt his lesson? No! That very night we found him perched on the sofa watching TV! He isn't impressed with his bandage and keeps chewing it. Because of this, we have had to go back to the vets twice to get a new one which is proving very expensive! He must have it for a month in total so hopefully this one will last now, as he only needs it for two more weeks. Hope you all had a lovely half term. Miss you all, take care, love Mrs Mason xx
