

Postcard from my teacher

Dear Silver Birch,
thank you for your postcards. I hear one of you has a bubble machine which sounds great fun. And I had to look up what gazpacho is... sounds yummy! I am pleased you are keeping busy. I can imagine you miss being at school and being able to see your friends properly. We all miss you- it is not the same at school without all the classes there and I think everyone looks forward to when you can all return and be together again. Hopefully we won't have to wait too long. I saw one of you in Windsor on Wednesday, and it was lovely to have a proper chat.

I had a lovely birthday 😊 I didn't realise Miss Gilbert had a birthday too! I was very lucky because not only did Molly make me a chocolate birthday cake, but George made me a chocolate tiffin. It was raining all day, so it seemed a good idea to stay indoors and eat all these treats. I did have to go for an extra-long walk the following day to make up for it!

The fluffies are all well. Otis is bandage free at last and full of beans. I caught him with his head in my coffee cup drinking my coffee the other day! He is definitely going to be a handful as he gets older.

I miss you all and hope to see you soon. Love Mrs Mason xx
