

Postcard from my teacher

Hi Willow

This week I was able to meet up with my friend, Mrs Mason.

We went for a long walk, then sat by the river in the beautiful sunshine. It was lovely to see her and catch up on all our news. While we were there, we saw some of you cycle pass, it was fantastic to see you and hear what you have been up to. While we were chatting, we had our backs away from our bags, and 2 cheeky crows went into our bag and stole some marshmallows!! Ollie has been playing lots of golf (in between doing his school work!), he's even more excited now as the course is open for 18holes! Thank you for your postcards, I see some of you are having ballet lessons , that's brilliant. I had to get the hair clippers out again this week to cut Ollie's and my husband's hair. I did quite a good job, maybe I should open a hairdressing salon! Hope you are all ok and see you very soon. Love Mrs Cherrill x
