

Postcard from my teacher

Dear Spruce,
I have been very busy working in key worker school this week. Myself and Mrs Johnson did some baking with the children which was lots of fun. I was very pleased to receive some lovely messages this week. I saw an amazing speech bubble from the Big Bad Wolf and a picture of Jacks beanstalk that one of you have been growing very well. I am looking forward to VE day today which I know a lot of people are celebrating. Maybe you have seen lots of flags around. Do you know what the flags are called? Do you know what VE day is celebrating? I hope you all have a lovely weekend and keep sending me all your lovely work and activities to our new learning email address. Miss you all.
Love from Mrs Gilchrist xxx
