

Postcard from my teacher

Dear Olive,

I hope you are all well and enjoying the sunshine; when it comes out! I have been busy planting lots of vegetable seeds and playing with my son. We read the latest book that the Author, Jennifer Bell, has written: Agents of Wild. We really enjoyed it! I have managed to read some other books too, which hasn't happened in a while! I am continuing to crochet - Mrs Grinsted told me I should get ahead and make your Summer Term presents!

I have started to read and mark your suspense stories. They are such a delight!

Take care and I will write again soon.
