

Postcard from my teacher

Dear Olive,

I had the joy of reading one of your pieces of work.

Great research into Brazil and flags of all the different countries. What have the rest of you been up to? I really do love hearing from you. I was in school this week and enjoyed reading some of the children's Haikus.

Did any of you catch the Chester Zoo videos and find out who Mr Parsons is?

The long-term bench project I mentioned a few weeks ago was finally finished this week. Hooray! I've managed to find a fiction book on our next topic so I'm busy trying to read that to see if it might be any use in our work.

It's got a very good plot and I'm enjoying reading it even if I only get five minutes in here and there.

Wow, this week someone reached 450 Doodle stars!

Great work. Please keep doing Doodle and don't forget to do doodle times tables after Doodle maths.

Take care and I will write again soon.
