

Postcard from my teacher

Dear Bonsai,

Hello again I hope you are all well and had a lovely Easter.

The Easter Bunny kindly visited our house over the weekend and there is now a lot of tempting chocolate in the cupboard which I'm trying very hard to resist, but failing miserably.

We did an egg hunt in the garden which was fun, and it was great to see the new flowers starting to bloom.

My son is back at school this week, his new classroom is basically our kitchen, and his new teacher, is me! He finds it a bit strange that mummy is now his teacher. He's only in Year 3 so I'm having to teach different topics to what I am used to in Year 5.

We are all going for walks when we can, and when we see other people we smile and say hello as it's just nice to see different people.

Friday nights have become our family movie night, and last week we saw Pokemon Detective Pikachu – which I loved and though was very funny (I now want to adopt Pikachu!). Have you been watching any interesting programs?

Anyway, please all take care of yourselves, and Mrs Higton will write soon.
