

Postcard from my teacher

Dear Bonsai,

Hello again, I hope you're all doing well and have had a great week.

Thank you again to all those children who have been sending in their work for me to see – it's so nice to see how creative you are, and there has been some very interesting research done on the Mayan topic, well done.

I hope you've enjoyed doing the science experiments, and haven't used up too much of your sugar or salt at home doing the dissolving investigation ha ha!

Keep up the great work and effort, I know you can do it 😊

Hope you all have a lovely weekend, and I'll write again soon.
