

Postcard from my teacher

Dear Nursery,

I hope you have had a good week at home? I am lucky to have a garden I can relax in. I have been reading my book in the sun. It is so hot I wish I had a swimming pool!

It was my dog's birthday last week. He is now 3 years old!

Does that mean he is allowed in Nursery now? How cute would he look in a Nursery jumper haha! We gave him a few extra treats but I couldn't buy him a birthday present so when the shops open, I will buy him an extra special toy. Snoopy and Peanut are still having fun and love spending time with their cousins.

This week I have enjoyed catching up with my friends in a virtual party. The rule was you had to wear something silly on your head. I wore a green wig!! I won! All my friends laughed! Keep up the good work! Miss you all, take care and I will write again soon.
