

Postcard from my teacher

Dear Beech,

I hope you are enjoying the beautiful weather lately! I have been making the most of the sunshine by pottering in my garden and, as a result, I haven't made a lot of progress reading 'The Kite Rider'. So, it will have to be another week before I can tell you much more about it.

Last week, my daughter had a couple of days off work, so we were able to go shopping in Windsor together. It was my first trip to the shops in weeks and it was great to be able to walk around and browse. We did not buy much but, most importantly, we did manage to find my husband a new jumper for Fathers' Day!

What I am really waiting for is the re-opening of my hairdressers. Every day is a bad hair day, and my hair looks more and more like it belongs to Donald Trump!

Have a good week and enjoy the hot weather.
