

Stunning Start

We will start off by having a traditional British 'afternoon tea'. The children will discuss what comes to their mind when we hear the word Britain.

Writing Genre

Story	Persuasive	Explanation	Instructions
Newspaper Reports	Poetry	Play Scripts	Recount
Non-Chronological	Letters	Biography	Diary

RE- Christianity- Easter and Forgiveness.

PSHE- Jigsaw Scheme 'Healthy Me'.

English

- Features of adventure stories.
- Use of speech and actions to suggest ideas about characters and events.
- Creating suspense through short sentences, ellipses and vocabulary choices.
- Writing and critiquing adventure stories.
- Making notes and identifying key information.
- Writing a diary with appropriate features.
- Using a range of conjunctions, adjectives and adverbs.
- Editing our writing.

Class Stories

The beats of Buckingham Palace

Brilliant BritainScience-Animals including humans-Skeleton, muscles and Movement:

- Humans get the nutrition they need from what they eat.
- Balanced diet is needed in order to stay healthy.
- Which foods different animals eat.
- Carry out an investigation to find out what pets eat.
- Explore human and animal skeletons.
- Find out about how the skeleton supports and protects the body and how invertebrates are supported.
- Find out what muscles are and how skeletal muscles help us move.

Maths

- Using division to calculate fractions of amounts.
- Measuring and reading scales.
- Column addition and subtraction.
- Recording data in tables, tally charts, pictograms and bar charts.
- Comparing fractions and finding equivalent fractions.
- Problem solving.

Computing

Decomposition and how it helps with coding, algorithm, sequencing, debugging, visual coding and improving ability on game coding.

History

- Stone Age
- Bronze Age
- Iron Age

PE

- Tennis
- Swimming-Thursday PM

Geography- The UK:

- Locate the UK on a map, globe and atlas.
- Counties and cities within the UK.
- Rivers and seas UK.
- Hills and mountains UK.
- To explore how the UK has changed.
- Explore how cities such as London have expanded.

Art/DT

Our inspiration this term will be British artist William Morris. We will be sketching natural objects and create and use a printing block. We will be creating Mother's day inspired cross stitch patterns.

Music

Charanga-Three Little Birds, Bob Marley