

Name: _____ Date: _____

Imagine you are James Lind in 1747. You want to do an experiment to see whether eating different foods cures sailors of scurvy. Plan your experiment below, then record what you found out.

What are you trying to find out?

How will you carry out your experiment?

What do you expect the results will show you?

Results:

Group	Results

What have you found out from your experiment?